REVISED STATUTES

OF KENTUCKY,

NEW EDITION.

BY HON. R. R. STANTON.

This valuable work, prepared with great accuracy and labor, by the Hon. R. R. STANTON, of Maysville, Ky., contains the Revised Statutes of Kentucky as originally adopted in 1851-1852, with all the amendments thereto, and general laws of the State, enacted since and prior to that period; thus forming a complete and whole Statutory System now in force in the State. In addition to the very great convenience of having all the Statutory Law condensed into a single work well arranged, the text of these volumes is illustrated and enriched by full and copious notes on the Decisions of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, settling the construction of such provisions as may heretofore have been of doubtful or uncertain meaning. Those engaged in the administration of the law in Kentucky, will be saved much labor of research by thus having, in a small compact and condensed form, the whole practical working of the Statutory System of the State. In truth, the work will be found of great value in all classes of persons.

The work is comprised in TWO ROYAL OCTAVO VOLUMES, printed with new, clear type, upon the very best paper, and bound in superior law binding.

Mr. GLENN moved that the bill and all amendments offered be placed in the orders of the day.

Mr. WALTON advocated the bill just as it was; but he was not particularly in favor of Franklin county, but for the school, and owing to the opinion he had in the practical working of the school, he thought the vicinity of the seat of Government the best place. He advocated the bill with zeal and ability.

Mr. ANDREWS moved the previous question sustained.

The vote was then taken upon placing the bill and amendments in the orders of the day: negative—yeas, 11; nays, 21.

The question first came upon Mr. PENNEBAKER's amendment to Mr. Fisk's amendment which was to strike out Franklin and insert Jefferson county.

The amendment, if offered now, might tend to interfere with the convictions of Senators upon the propositions discussed for ten days.

The amendment is as follows: Provided, That no slave shall be imported into this State who has been runaway from any other State for crime, or who has been convicted of under charge of felony.

Mr. ANDREWS—Military Affairs—a H. R. resolution to procure and present a gold medal to each of the survivors of Kentucky volunteers at the battle of Lake Erie, on Sept. 10th, 1813.

Mr. TAYLOR, of Mason, said: I think, Mr. Speaker, that the resolution under consideration will meet with the unanimous approbation of the Senate. Sir, the surviving volunteers from Kentucky, who were present and bravely participated in the memorable naval engagement on Lake Erie on 10th September, 1813, are very few. Perhaps, sir, not more than four or five are yet alive. I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted with three of them—Jas. Aris, an honored and esteemed citizen of Mason county, who was wounded in that battle whilst fighting with heroic courage, at close quarters, on board the Calidonian; Dr. William F. Taffierro, now a distinguished citizen and physician of the city of Cincinnati, then a young and gallant officer of dragoons, a native, and for a long time afterward, a resident of Kentucky; and Jno. Tucker, "little John Tucker," as he was called, from his diminutive size, for many years a citizen of this, but now a resident of the sister State of Ohio.

These brave men were volunteers on board Perry's ships. That intrepid commander was in constant expectation of an engagement with the enemy, who were pressing him and endeavoring to force him to give battle. He was deficient in the complement of men necessary to man his vessels for such a contest with such an enemy. He dispatched a messenger to General Harrison, then encamped with his army at Fort Seneca, I believe, requesting that officer to send him some companies of regular troops to fight as marines in the expected conflict.

A number of the Kentucky volunteers in Harrison's army earnestly petitioned their chief for permission to join Perry's fleet. It was refused at first, but finally some twenty of them, belonging to Captain John Payne's company of dragoons, were allowed to embark with the regulars. They made their appearance upon the decks of Perry's ships in the bear skin cap and uniform dress of the dragoon, greatly to the mortification of the sailors, who called them "Horse Marines." They fought nobly, valiantly. They, sir, on that day, and to them on a new theatre, cheerfully contributed their mite to the imperishable renown of "the Kentucky hero." Indeed, sir, it is said by the accredited historians of the times, that but for the presence of the troops from Harrison's army, Perry could not have fought and gained that battle.

These men, sir, for their brave and patriotic services on that day, are entitled to the everlasting gratitude of their country, and I trust that the slight token of the remembrance of their deeds contemplated by the resolution will not be withheld.

After which the resolution was adopted.

Mr. GLENN—Agriculture and Manufactures—asked to be discharged from the consideration of the petition of Denton Offutt—discharged.

Resolved, That hereafter this House will meet at half past 9 o'clock, and continue in session until 1 o'clock; then take a recess until half past 2 o'clock in the evening.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor by Mr. Monroze, announcing that he had approved and signed sundry bills originating in the House.

And then the House took a recess until half past 2 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. GEIGER rose to a privileged question. He found in the correspondence of the Louisville Journal of to-day's issue, that in the discussion of the bill in relation to Foreign Insurance agencies, the writer prefers the charge of an "assassin Democracy" against the majority of the members of this House. He stated that he was proud to belong to the Democratic party—a party high and honorable in distinction—yet he was charged, with that party, with legislating detrimentally to the interest of Louisville. He claimed the right to legislate for Louisville—a great and glorious city, and an honor to every citizen of this Commonwealth—and he would legislate for her with all the wisdom he had; he would use his abilities to her best advantage; he was born and reared in the city of Louisville, and hoped to remain, the balance of his days, among her people—his people.

LOUISVILLE HOUSE OF REFUGE.

On motion of Mr. GEIGER, a message was sent to the Senate, asking leave to withdraw the report of this House, of a passage of a bill in relation to the Louisville House of Refuge.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill for the benefit of Wilson Adamson, and the legal representative of Geo. H. Hayson.

Mr. WOOD moved the previous question—adopted.

The question being taken upon the passage of the bill it was decided in the negative—yeas, 46; nays, 29; the constitution requiring a majority of all elected to the House.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has obtained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of mere assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half million bottles, and from its manifest increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the wrapper, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to combat declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the tender sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
